

VEER KUNWAR SINGH UNIVERSITY , ARA

LLB REGULATIONS (2009)

THREE / FIVE YEARS LAW COURSE

FOR THE AWARD OF LLB DEGREE

Under the provision of the Advocate Act, 1961, the Bar Council of India has prescribed a Three Year law course Based on SEMESTER SYSTEM. Accordingly , University Grants Commission has revised the Syllabus for Three Year Law Course for its implementation.

- I) An admitted student is required is required to undergo a Regular Course of study and to attend required number of classes in each semester in order to be eligible to appear in the University Examination to be conducted by the University for each of the Three Parts divided into Six Semesters and fashioned in the following manner :

- |                     |                |
|---------------------|----------------|
| 1) LL.B. Part – I   | Semester One   |
|                     | Semester Two   |
| 2) LL.B. Part – II  | Semester Three |
|                     | Semester Four  |
| 3) LL.B. Part – III | Semester Five  |
|                     | Semester Six   |

- II) A student has to take twenty-eight papers (Subjects) in all, which shall include eighteen Compulsory Papers and also additional papers prescribed by the University from time to time.

- III) For Honours Course a students has to take thirty-six papers in all, which shall include eighteen Compulsory papers, four Clinical Papers, Six Optional Papers and eight papers from any of the groups made for Honours Course. In order to secure Honours a student has to pass those additional eight papers. The distribution of those eight papers among the semester is in the following manner :

1st Semester - One Paper

2nd Semester - One Paper

3rd Semester - One Paper

4th Semester - One Paper

5th Semester - Two Papers

6th Semester - Two Papers

However if eight papers are taken from multiple groups Honours can be given in General Law without mentioning any specialization.

Example : "A" has taken eight Honours papers selected as follows : Two from constitutional Law . Three from Business Law, One from International Law and Two from International Trade Law, his Honours shall be in Law, "B" take eight papers from Constitutional Law group, his Honours shall be mentioned in Constitutional Law.

IV) The Three years Course leading to degree in Law shall be conducted in Semester system in not less than 15 weeks for each semester with not less than 30 Class hours per week including Tutorials, Moot-Court room exercise, Written Test, presentation of Project Works, Seminars. Provided there shall be at least 24 Lecture hours per week . Provided further that in case of Honours Law Course there shall be not less than 36 class hours per week including Tutorials, Moot-Court room exercise , Written test, Presentation of Project Works, Seminars and 30 minimum Lecture hours per weeks.

V) ELIGIBILITY FOR ADMISSION

(a) i. ADMISSION TO LL.B. PART – I (Semester -I) : Admission to LL.B Part – I , Semester – I shall be open to a person having Bachelor's Degree in Arts, Science, Commerce, Engineering or any other Faculty of a recognized university or possesses such academic qualifications which are considered equivalent to a Bachelor's Degree by the V.K.S.U., Ara with at least 45 % marks in the Bachelor's Examination.

ii. AGE ON ADMISSION FOR THREE YEARS LAW COURSE : The maximum age for seeking admission is limited to THIRTY YEARS for general candidates and THIRTY FIVE YEARS for S.C.,S.T. and O.B.C. candidates.

iii. AGE ON ADMISSION FOR FIVE YEARS LAW COURSE : For five years Integrated Bachelor of Law degree program is limited to twenty years in case of general category of applicant and to twenty two years in case of applicants from SC,ST and Other Backward Communities.

(b) ADMISSION TO LL.B. PART – II (Semester -III) : No Student shall be admitted to LL.B third semester unless the candidate has completed required number of attendance in LL.B first and second semester Class and has been sent-up for LL.B Second Semester Examination of the V.K.S.U., Ara.

(c) ADMISSION TO LL.B. PART – III (Semester -V) : Any student who has been sent-up for the LL.B fourth semester examination of the V.K.S.U., Ara after having completed required number of attendance in LL.B third and fourth semester shall be eligible for admission to the LL.B Part – III (Fifth Semester) provided he has already passed LL.B first and second semester examination of the V.K.S.U., Ara.

	Uniform	Fee
1	Uniform Identity Number (to be collected by the institution and to be sent to the Bar Council of India with such particulars as may be prescribed)	Rs. Two hundred for each student.
2	Uniform identity Number and Central Data (for faculty member)	Rs. Two Hundred for each faculty.

II. ATTENDANCE

(a) Every student shall be required to attend at least (Minimum ) 75 % of the total number of Lectures delivered in each subject including Moot Courts and Tutorials. However, lectures below 75 % up to 60 % may be allowed as per General provisions of the V.K.S.U., Ara regulation for eligibility to appear at University Examination.

(b) (i) A total number of at least 90 lectures shall be delivered in a subject or group of subjects forming a separate papers.

(ii) Six sitting of Moot Court shall be arranged in each subject except the following:-

- I. JURISPRUDENCE
- II. LEGAL HISTORY
- III. BANKING LAW & NEGOTIABLE INSTRUMENTS ACT.
- IV. LEGAL WRITING & GENERAL ENGLISH
- V. ARBITRATION, CONCILIATION & ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION SYSTEMS
- VI. INTERPRETATION OF STATUTES
- VII. ENVIRONMENTAL LAW.

(III) Ten tutorial classes shall be arranged in each paper during the session . Provided the Principal with the permission of the Vice-Chancellor may reduce the number of Lectures, Moot Court and Tutorial in extraordinary circumstances.

III. UNIVERSITY EXAMINATION

There shall be a University Examination in specified papers of every semester in LL.B one to sixth semester . Each paper shall carry hundred marks divided into two parts i.e. 80 marks on University Examination of theory papers and 20 marks on internal assessments.

The internal assessments shall comprise of performance in Tutorials, Moot-Court Exercises, Written Test, Project Works and Attendance in class rooms as per the requirements in individual papers. The duration of the university examination shall be of three hours.

Provided that the examination in practical training shall be conducted in groups as directed by the bar Council of India Rules and examination schedule fixed by V.K.S.U., Ara.

In order to pass and to be placed in 2nd Class an examinee must obtain a minimum of 33 % marks in each theory paper excluding internal assessment and at least 45 % marks in the aggregates of all the papers taken together including the marks obtained in internal assessment.

The degree shall be awarded on the basis of total aggregate marks obtained in all the six semesters University Examination i.e. first, second, third, fourth , fifth and sixth semesters examination taken together conducted by the V.K.S.U., Ara.

Provided that an examinee who has failed in only one subject or in aggregate or in both taken together by shortage of a maximum of 5 marks, may be awarded such a marks in that subject or in the aggregate to make him pass and the added marks shall be taken in to account for determining his class.

Provided further that an examinee who has passed in the aggregate but has failed in one or more subjects in any of the examinations may be permitted to appear at the immediate two subsequent examinations in the subject or subjects in which the examinee has failed.

IV. ELIGIBILITY FOR EXAMINATION

Every student shall be required to attend at least (Minimum) 75 % of the total number of Lecturers delivered in each subject including Moot Courts and Tutorials. However , lectures below 75 % up to 60 % may be allowed as per General Provisions of the V.K.S.U., Ara regulation for eligibility to appear at University Examination.

V. OPERATION OF THE REGULATION

These regulations for three years Law Course (semester system) shall come into force sessions 2009-10 for which students have been admitted to LL.B Semester-I Courses.

However the three years law existing regulations shall remain in operation for the old students of the law courses upto the three Consecutive Examination after the 2009 examination.

In the event of a gap of more than three calendar years after taking admission in Regular Course, the student shall be required to take three calendar years after taking admission in Regular Course, the student shall be required to take fresh admission in the respective part irrespective of the fact that he / she been declared sentup for university examination.

VI. OTHERS

The Principal, Law College , V.K.S.U., Ara shall be authorised to take decision regarding teaching of any optional subject / subjects and Honours papers in consultation with the Members of the Faculty and with the approval of the Vice-Chancellor, V.K.S.U., Ara.

All the Acts and Rules mentioned in the subjects taught will be imparted to the students as per the latest amendments if any . The students are also expected to answer the questions asked in the university examinations accordingly.